Bobath Children's Therapy Centre Wales, based in Cardiff is celebrating after being awarded £5,000 worth of funding from The Screwfix Foundation, a charity which supports projects to fix, repair, maintain and improve properties and facilities for those in need.

Rachel Morgan, Head of Income Generation at Bobath Wales comments: "We are very grateful to The Screwfix Foundation for donating these much-needed funds to support our charity. Bobath Wales is a registered charity whose mission is to improve the quality of life of children across Wales who have cerebral palsy. The funding will be used towards the refurbishment of their exciting new Therapy Centre. We'd like to thank everyone who was involved in the fundraising – it's been a great help to us."

The Screwfix Foundation, which launched in April 2013 donates much needed funding to help a variety of local projects throughout the UK, from repairing buildings and improving community facilities, to improving the homes of people living with sickness or disability.

It also works closely with Macmillan Cancer Support, as well as supporting smaller, local registered charities like Bobath Wales.

Relevant projects from across Wales are invited to apply online for a share of the funding at screwfixfoundation.com.

About The Screwfix Foundation:

The Screwfix Foundation is a charity set up by Screwfix in April 2013. We have a clear purpose of raising funds to support projects that will fix, repair, maintain and improve properties and community facilities specifically for those in need in the UK.

The Screwfix Foundation raises funds throughout the year to support causes that will change people's lives. Working with both national and local charities, The Screwfix Foundation donates much needed funding to help all sorts of projects, from repairing buildings and improving community facilities, to improving the homes of people living with sickness or disability.
