

Ennis Celebrates New Screwfix Store Opening

February 2020: Pictured at the official launch of Screwfix Ennis is Aron Shanagher, Clare Senior Hurler and local tradesperson, Kieran McManus, Store Manager and members of the Ennis store team. The leading trade retailer opened its doors in Clonroadmore Industrial Estate today with eager customers ready to stock up on the latest tools and trade essentials.

The Screwfix store in Ennis has created 12 new jobs in the area across retail management, service assistants and supervisor roles as part of the company's expansion into Ireland. As part of these plans, there is the potential for the business to open up to 40 stores over the coming years, creating over 400 employment opportunities in Ireland.

Open Monday to Friday (07.00 to 20.00), Saturday (07.00 to 18.00) and Sunday (10.00 to 18.00), the store provides a convenient Click & Collect service that is available at all Screwfix locations nationwide. Using this service, customers can order their goods online and pick them up from a store in as little as one minute.

Speaking about the official opening, Screwfix Store Manager, Kieran McManus, said; "We chose to open a new store in Ennis to better meet the needs of the local tradespeople. We have received fantastic support from local businesses and the surrounding community, and we're are looking forward to supporting more busy tradespeople and serious DIYers in Ennis."

Screwfix's huge range of the latest industry-leading products and exceptional deals are also available online at www.screwfix.ie.
